Classy looking bay that will cover a lot of ground. He's easy to catch and big enough to carry any size rider. If you're looking for a good prospect for team penning or sorting, feedlot, or just a good mount for someone who does a lot of riding, this nice 5 year old might be the one for you.

Nice sized and good looking! Also, gentle and easy to catch. Has been used in all phases of ranch. The way oDunnyo watches a cow, check this one out for team penning, team sorting, feedlot or if you're just looking for a good all around ranch horse.

oJoeo has been my main horse ever since he was a three year old. He's exceptionally well-broke o anyone can climb on this one. Joe's easy to catch o can turn him out for several months, then saddle him up and take off. Has packed elk and hauled inexperienced riders the last five years. Has been used for heading, heeling, dragging lots of calves to the branding fire, pasture doctoring, and you won't find a better mount to sort cattle with. Don't pass oJoeo over if you're looking for a good team penning or sorting or roping horse. This one will do whatever you ask of him.

"It's a lot like nuts and bolts-if the rider's nuts, the horse bolts!" -Nicholas Evans, 'The Horse Whisperer'

Nice seven year old broodmare with plenty of chrome. Raises nice colts with good dispositions and great color. She's bred back to WP JR CHIC. This mare was ridden thirty days before she became a broodmare. She has a really good dun filly colt at her side that sells also-lot # 81 (colt out of same stud she's bred back to).

Streak is a 6 year old gelding that is a little on the small side but makes up for it in heart. I've never rode a quicker, cowy gelding than him. We started him on the heeling side this summer and he's going well.

Reno is an 8 year old gelding. We've used him in all phases of ranch work. He is really going nice in the arena both heading and heeling. When we have to do any sorting, he's the one I want to be on because he will eat a cow. He's also made several trips to the mountains during our annual elk hunting trip. Don't miss this one!
