Loren Treffer
1932-2018

Loren was a kid in the dirty 30's near Rockville, Nebraska. Horses were a part of his life from then on. He had to quit school when he was 13, farming with draft horses with his brothers. Over the next 72 years he broke, used and raised horses. In the 1960's he would buy 5 horses at a time to start. The kids got their first 4-H horses that way. Bruce was the oldest so he got the $75 palomino. Mike was next oldest, so got the $50 sorrel. Both made it to the State 4-H Horse Show, when it was still held during the State Fair. Loren was a 4-H Leader in both Polk and Custer Counties.

He helped start the Goldenrod Saddle Club in Osceola and competed across the state. Horses were also used with the Angus herd and when working for several ranches. The ranch jobs were intermixed within his career as a mechanic. Tiny, Babe, Smoky, Connie and Barzee were all horses that made his horse experience special.

Loren was an inspector for the Model Quarter Horse Association, (a precursor to the Foundation Quarter Association), with all horses having to visually qualify. For nearly 50 years the family has registered AQHA foals. Loren took great pride in the horses he raised and the success they went on to have. Watching grand-kids ride home-raised horses was special. He truly loved visiting with horse people and swapping stories.

Loren never stopped riding and passed away right after giving the cattle and horses some extra attention before the January 22 blizzard arrived. He was a true cowboy and horseman.

TREFFER

Zans Last Parr "Bud"
1988-2018

"Bud" was put down on August 10 due to age related ailments. He was likely the last living son of Zan Parr Bar, having been born in the final foal crop.

"Bud" was bred by Carol Rose in Texas and was out of a superior halter mare that raised top performance horses. He was purchased by a roper that put him in training to be a reiner until he was injured. Dogie Jones of Watrous, New Mexico bought him to use on his herd of mares and after a number of foal crops, he ended up with us in Broken Bow. He sired earners of 282 AQHA points, 1016 Palomino Performance points and 82 All-Around Champion show awards.
